The Hebrew University of Jerusalem (HUJ) is one of the top 100 academic institutions in the world. For over 80 years it has demonstrated academic excellence in education and research through scholars, scientists and 5 Nobel Prize winners. This year the Israel Council for Higher Education ranked the Hebrew University of Jerusalem as the nation's number one university on a scale of academic excellence.

And the European Council announced HUJ's Brain Research Centre as a Centre of Excellence and is sponsoring 100 researchers from across Europe to train there.
